Can a patron track the history of their requests?

Answer

A library patron can track the history of any requests created using ILLiad by clicking into the Request and selecting the History tab.