What authorization number and password do I use to log into CatExpress?

Applies to

- CatExpress

Answer

To log into CatExpress, you can use any Cataloging Authorization number and associated password that has been registered to your institution. If you don't know these authorizations, please contact OCLC Support. Support will need the OCLC symbol for your institution to look up the authorization numbers.